Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all im-mediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in cur-ing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want. Oct. 13, '77-1y.

Scribner for November. The most noteworthy feature in Scribner for November is the beginning of Haworth's, the new novel by Mrs. Burnett, author of that Lass o' Lowrie's, the serial publication to continue throughout the magazine year, which begins with this number. The opening scene of the story is an English foundry, and the range of characters introduced promises to be wide and varied. The story is considered sufficiently pleturesque to admit of four illustrations each month, two of which are to be by Mr. Bolles, and two by Mr. Dielman.

The publishers announce that during the coming year there will be four frontispieces (a feature recently introduced into holiday numhers' only). These will be portraits of emi-nent American poets, to be drawn by Wyatt Eaton and engraved by T. Cole (from whose hands came the Lincoln and Bryant portraits), and in pursuance of this plan, the first one— of Mr. Longfellow—is given in the November number accompanied by a full critical and number, accompanied by a full critical and biographical sketch, by R. Johnny Reb at Play is the first of several papers by an ex-Confederate soldier, Mr. A. C. Redwood, upon interesting phases of life in the Southern army. Mr. Redwood is his own artist, and draws for his rollicking paper pictures of regiments snow-balling, the Kimbomikin, Jining the Cavalry, Wearing a Kunfedikin, Jining the Cavalry, Wearing a Kunfederit Watch, etc. The next paper will show the heroic and pathetic side of this life.

The Spelling-Bee at Angel's by Bret Harte, is reported by Truthful James in the style of the author's response of the style the author's early metrical successes, and the situation and moral are enforced by two drawings by Thomas Eakins, for which the merit of fidelity to Californian types is claimed.

There is also a paper on the Picturesque

But after a long interval of quiet, and when the men who were cheated had almost ceased to denotince the wrong which they had suffered, the men who cheated them suddenly made a fierce sttack on their victims and broke into a sudden enthusiasm of moral judignation over the reported discovery of a fraud which the Democratic managers in Florida are said to have attempted but never carried out. A Republican newspaper having published a great number of what purport to be secret despatches between Mr. Tilden's agents here and in the South, indicating an unfulfilled intention to buy a returning-board decision, something very like the "wolf's long howl from Oonalaska's shore" has gone up from the Republican press at the revelation. The cry of "fraud" goes up on all sides from the friends of Mr. Hayes, and the Republican party has suddenly become the aggressor on the record of the last Presidenmore whimsical turning of the tables. The Democrats finds themselves in the position of a good citizer collared by the man who has just robbed him and charged with pocket-picking. If the fraud issue is really to be forced upon the country nnew the Democracy are the last people to object to it. Whatever becomes of Mr. Tiiden and his friends, the rule which the Republican press has applied to their conduct must be rigidly enforced in regard to President Hayes and his associates.
